

CHILD AND FAMILY STUDIES, BACHELOR OF SCIENCE WITH A CONCENTRATION IN FAMILY STUDIES (B.S.)

The Child & Family Studies major offers three concentrations: Child Development, Family Studies, Interdisciplinary Early Childhood Education

The Family Studies Concentration prepares graduates to work with individuals and families in a variety of social service settings. Positions are available in family resource centers, community agencies, profit and non-profit organizations that provide services for children, youth, adults and families.

To be granted a degree in Child and Family Studies students must have a "C" or better in all CDF and supporting courses.

Program Objectives

Upon completion of a degree in Child and Family Studies graduates will be able to:

1. assess developmental, political, social, cultural, economic and technological influences on the well-being and diversity of individuals, families and communities;
2. design and implement a range of services for individuals, children and families;
3. utilize and interpret appropriate individual, family and program evaluation measures;
4. access community resources and collaborate with community agencies/services; and
5. evaluate and monitor their professional development.

Admission and Progression Requirements for Child and Family Studies with a Concentration in Family Studies

All students who are accepted by EKU's Admission office and declare their major as Child and Family Studies are admitted to the University as pre-Child and Family Studies majors. However, admission to the pre-Child and Family Studies program does not guarantee admission to the Child and Family Studies program. To be admitted to the Child and Family Studies program concentration Family Studies the following criteria must be met:

1. Minimum of 45 hours with a 2.75 overall GPA,
2. GPA of 3.0 with a grade of "C" or better in each course in the following courses

Code	Title	Hours
CDF 235	Child Development: Conception-Eight Years	3
CDF 236	Interaction and Guidance	3
CDF 327S	Family Involvement with Young Children	3

Once these requirements have been met, the student must apply to the Child and Family Studies Program Director for a change from the pre-Child and Family Studies program to the Child and Family Studies program.
